

The Joy Of Learning Through The Magic of Music

A Concert Workshop For Teachers Featuring Bob Schneider And The Rainbow Kids

ABOUT BOB: Bob Schneider is a performer who has been writing, recording and performing for and with children for the past decade. Bob has toured extensively throughout Canada and the United States. His live concerts are a mixture of sophisticated production techniques and joyful spontaneity.

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP: The concert workshop is suitable for educational conferences, keynote or general sessions, P.D. Day presentations, etc. Bob's Concert-Workshop will illustrate how teachers from all disciplines can use music to build self-esteem in children; motivate them to appreciate language; and make his songs "their own". As Bob explains, "In the arts, there is no right or wrong; everything is right, therefore kids can succeed and meet high expectations." Bob will present the workshop with "The Rainbow Kids," selected from elementary schools in each city.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: Early Childhood Educators
Teachers from Grade K-6
Special Educators
ESL Teachers
Music Teachers

For information on booking Bob Schneider Workshop presentation call or write:

